Instructions for which Genre, Audience and Purpose to use

24 marks for content and organisation; 16 marks for technical accuracy (40 marks)

Structuring your writing

Beginnings	Imagine this:....	-Use descriptive language techniques -Juxtapose two views on the same topic -e.g. Imagine this: a world in which social media has ruined young people's mental health due to emphasis on body image.... Now imagine this: a world in which social media boosts mental health because it helps people connect...
	Now imagine this:....
	One word + amplification	-e.g. Social media. What comes to mind when you hear these words? Well, to many people social media conjures up images of... and...
	Anecdote	-Use descriptive language techniques -Use a personal story to engage your reader -e.g. Josie joined Instagram when she was 14, three years after she started endlessly pestering her parents to get an account. But after just one week, it all went wrong...
Middles	XXOX	X = agree, O = show the other side of the argument (then demolish it)
	Develop your points	Use descriptive language and detailed anecdotes to expand on your ideas
Endings	Circular structure: return to the start	e.g. Remember the world we imagined... Return to the character you described in your opening anecdote. How have they changed? What might they have learned? How has your perspective on this character's situation changed?
	Use collective language and a call to action	e.g. Let's join together in a call to improve social media. Our voices need to be heard so that the technological giants which increasingly control our online interactions will change for the better...
	Offer a solution	e.g. In order to see an improvement in this, we need to...

GAP the question:

Genre	Newspaper article	Include a headline Broadsheet – serious, academic, factual Tabloid – less serious, humorous, focussed more on personal stories and experiences

	Letter	Start with Dear... End with Yours faithfully...
	Blog	Slightly more informal; but not as chatty as the examples you will have read online Include the audience (we, our) Include personal stories and experiences
Audience	Formal	Teacher Headteacher Politician
	Informal	Friends Class at school Year group Family
Purpose	To persuade or argue	You need to provide evidence (facts, statistics, anecdotes) to convince your readers to agree with you
	To inform or describe	Explain your point of view on a topic or detail your experiences

Using a range of sentence structures – start with...

1. -ing verbs	Consider the idea that...
2. Two or three adjectives	Unsettling, worrying and disturbing , the idea...
3. -ly adverbs	Importantly , we must consider...
4. A preposition (over, under)	Above all else...
5. A simile	Like a...
6. A connective	First , we..
7. The noun – adjective, adjective - sentence:	Social media – dangerous and attractive – draws all of us in...
8. More, more, more sentence:	The more you tweet, the more likes you get...
